MODEL HORSE PROGRAM

PROJECT OBJECTIVES:

The purpose of the project is to help 4-H Club members to:

1. Build confidence and promote sportsmanship through model horse showing.

2. Gain knowledge of real horses through model horse showing and other planned activities.

3. Encourage creative minds and hands through model horse activities.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Be a member of a 4-H club and attend meetings regularly or an Independent member.

2. Must attend either the Model Horse Clinic, Annual Model Horse Show, or both.

3. Follow the leadership of the project leaders and extension staff.

4. Complete a County Level Public Presentation, participate in Community Service, assist with the Model Horse events as needed, and keep an accurate and up to date record book.

MODEL HORSE PROJECT INVENTORY

Herd Record - Start of Project Year (Do not include horses purchased this year)

For each horse in your herd at the start of the project year, write down the name you gave it, the manufacturer's model name or mold number if you know it, the breed that you have decided it best represents, the age/sex (abbreviations are S = stallion, G = gelding, M = mare), the color, the finish (OF =original finish or RRH = remade/repaint/haired) and the estimated value (purchase price or appraised value). If you have a large herd, you need not record each model. However, you should record all the models that you enter in any show. You may add additional sheets if needed.

Tack and Accessories Inventory - Start of Project Year (Do not include items purchased this year)

List in the appropriate section, all the tack you own at the start of the project year. Include a description of the item, which horse or horses the item can be used with (examples: any Classic, traditional, saddlebred, stock breeds, etc.), and the manufacturer, if known. Be sure to check whether you purchased the item or whether you made it yourself. If you own a lot of tack and accessories, you need not record each one. However, you should record all the items that you use in any shows. You may add additional sheets if needed.
